

String T1 Table Lamp

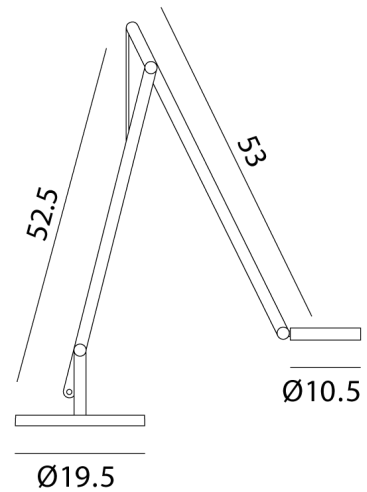

by Dante Donegani and Giovanni Lauda

The String Table Lamp is a sleek light which features endless directional lighting thanks to its adjustable arm and rotatable head. The hidden push dimmer on the lamp head continues the simplistic design aesthetic while providing touch-sensitive adjustment of the LED light source. The String Table Lamp is available white, black, bronze, champagne, graphite or silver finish. Each table lamp includes white, black and orange cables which are easily interchangeable for different looks.
