Huara Table Lamp

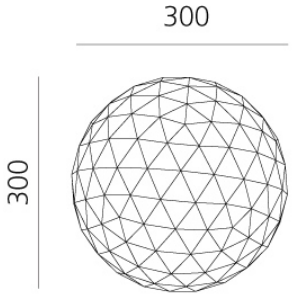

by Elemental

A luminous sphere of mystery and innovation, Huara reimagines the relationship between light and touch. Inspired by celestial bodies and named after the Aymara word for "star," this polished black orb responds to the simplest gesture - illuminating triangular segments with a gentle tap. Combining tactile interaction with app-based control, Huara offers a seamless blend of analogue and digital experience. Its sculptural form and intuitive function make it a striking centrepiece for contemporary interiors.
