

Sola Pendant

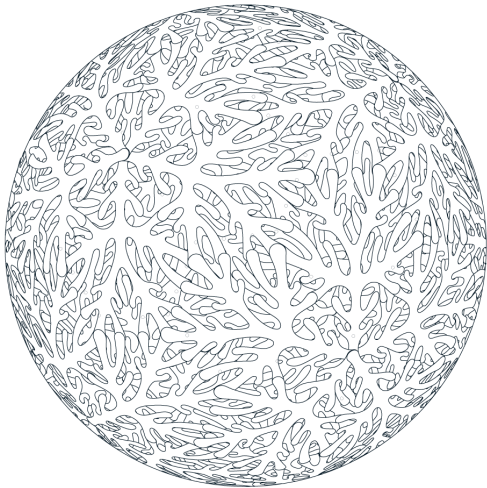

by David Trubridge

Based on the same geometry as Coral and Floral with more connection points, the Sola Pendant from David Trubridge creates an intensely intricate pattern. Designed as part of the Icarus installation shown in Milan Based on the Greek myth. Sola represents the Sun which will get too hot if you fly too high. The full installation (including Wing lights) was later purchased by the Pompidou Centre in Paris for its permanent collection. Available three sizes and a wide range of finishes to suit a variety of applications.
