

Castore Table Lamp

by Michele de Lucchi

Designed by Michele De Lucchi and Huub Ubbens for Artemide, the Castore Table Lamp brings sculptural elegance and soft, ambient light to interior spaces. Each version features a hand-blown glass diffuser and a luminous thermoplastic stem that gently transitions from base to shade, creating a calm, balanced form. Available in three sizes, the collection offers flexibility across residential, hospitality, and commercial settings. The smaller Table 14 includes a simple on/off switch on the cord, while the larger models feature integrated dimmers for adjustable brightness. Crafted in Italy, the Castore Table Lamp is ideal for creating warm, tranquil atmospheres with a refined, minimalist aesthetic.
