

Logico Pendant

by Michele De Lucchi, Gerhard Reichert

The Artemide Logico Suspension Light brings sophisticated Italian design to pendant lighting. Featuring a handblown glass diffuser with satin finish this suspended luminaire creates gentle ambient light while serving as a sculptural focal point. Designed by Michele De Lucchi and Gerhard Reichert the organic glass form is supported by a die-cast aluminium frame in matte grey finish. Perfect for dining tables kitchen islands and living spaces where suspended lighting adds visual interest. The modular design allows for multiple configurations to suit different architectural contexts.
