Dioscuri Ceiling/Wall Lamp

by Michele de Lucchi

A timeless Artemide design by Michele De Lucchi, Dioscuri blends minimalist elegance with heavenly light diffusion. Its hand-blown, acid-etched white glass sphere sits on a discreet resin base, casting soft, uniform illumination. The versatile design allows creative clustering, adapting to residential, hospitality, or commercial spaces. The iconic spherical shape ensures both aesthetic purity and functional light distribution. Dioscuri is available in table lamp and wall/ceiling versions. Made in Italy by Artemide.
